

Partnership for Young London

2019

TIMELINE

JAN

- Launch of know your roots
- Stop Loan Sharks training
- Research network established with Centre for Youth Impact & London Youth
- Youth-Led, Peer-Led Research Network

FEB

- Pan London Children In Care Council roundtable
- Pan London Children In Care Council regional network meeting
- Partnerships developed with Northern Ireland, Scotland, Yorks and Humber, Oldham for the Votes at 16 Debate
- Session on representation & diversity in the fashion industry for V&A fashion week
- Take Your Space, Public Speaking event
- Theory of Change session
- London Policy Network meeting looking at online mental health, votes at 16 and heritage
- Youth Advisory Board meeting
- Mental Health Trailblazers Launch with Healthy London Partnership

MAR

- Website redesign
- Attendance at the European Parliament Youth Outreach Team.
- Planning & Preparation for the Votes at 16 debate
- Youth Advisory Board attendance at the APPG on Diversity in charities.
- Media Training for the Youth Advisory group at the BBC
- Youth Advisory Board Barristers Training session
- Data Modelling Project established with pro bono support from Operational Research
- Safeguarding Adolescents session at London Councils
- Staff Away Day Brighton

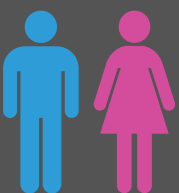

APR

- Debate at the Old Bailey to make Votes at 16 a reality with Northern Ireland, Oldham Youth Councils, Young People from Scotland, hosted by HRH Sarah Munroe.
- Healthy London Partnership Digital Health Ambassadors programme launched.
- London Policy Network on Hackney Youth Commission and the Young Londoners fund

MAY

- Peer Research Network launched with 50 people attending
- Young people and money training with the Stop the Loan Sharks campaign
- Intersectionality task

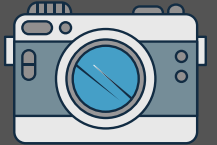

JUN

- Launch of youth-led research and #TruthaboutYouth programme
- Set up of the Cornerstone programme with London Youth and the Centre for Youth Impact
- Infographics training
- Digital Health Ambassadors and Healthy London Partnership training on social media and campaigning
- London Policy Network on the NSPCC safeguarding standards

JUL

- Launch of the Self - Made Sector report with the Roundhouse
- Annual Review meeting with Trustees and Youth Board
- Young researchers training programme
- Intersectionality 'Backtalking' event with LSE
- Digital Health Ambassadors and Healthy London Partnership training on digital marketing

AUG

- YouTube Vlogging Training Workshop powered by The Jack Petchey Foundation and Media Trust.
- Street Research day for London Young Researchers Network.

SEP

- Peer Research Network Meeting
- NHS Digital Health Ambassadors: Digital Design Session at Soapbox Islington
- Received funding from City Bridge Trust Cornerstone Fund to create a joint project venture with the Centre for Youth Impact and London Youth. The programme will consist of establishing a research network, facilitating research, training for practitioners and a number of local pilots

OCT

- CICC meeting
- Youth Network Meeting Open Day
- Setting the Research Agenda for Young Londoners event -A joint partnership to create the conditions for the services and support for young people to be: More informed by research, practice and the experiences of young people themselves.
- Representation in the City was an internal event for City of London Corporation staff which introducing the charity by providing an example of how we are addressing gender and race equality, using the project Know Your Roots as an example

NOV

- The first Young Londoner's Fund training session for Adverse Trauma Training was held.
- HERstories was an event which took place at the Museum of London Docklands. It looked at how we can use the London, Sugar and Slavery gallery as a launch pad to rethink contemporary collecting practices. This event focused on Black women because there is a significant gap within the collections that speaks specifically to the experiences and histories of African and Caribbean women in London

DEC

- The first Young Londoner's Fund Safer London Contextual Safeguarding training was held
- DILEMMA 04 X #TruthAboutYouth - The Saviour Complex was joint panel event with former youth board member David Adesanya. It was a curated panel event which aimed to tackle the ways that we can implement community and social action projects which are better informed and promote equity and equality.
- Final London Policy Network of the year on right based campaign by Youth Access